ONLINE SAFETY WEEK

This week has been Online Safety Week! We kicked things off with a visit from Bigfoot Computing. In the morning, all of KS2 took part in workshops on how we speak to our friends over the internet.

The whole school has also been exploring online safety through books! KS1 looked at Chicken Clicking, a story about wanting to buy things online. LKS2 looked at Troll Stinks by Tony Ross. This looked at how we treat others online and how words can be hurtful. UKS2 looked in detail about cyberbullying and how to spot and report it.

We can't wait to continue this next half term in our online safety lessons!
